

My comments are in reference to my opposition to the possible relaxation of the FCC's broadcast ownership rules. I am confident that such relaxation of the rules would result in large media control of opposing viewpoint expression over the air. Freedom of speech is supported by many viewpoints not just one or two. Thank you for the opportunity to express my views on this matter. Sincerely, S.L. Stephens